

Each class period will include some time for questions/discussion about the class, as well as a significant amount of time devoted to the specific content that will be taught the next week in Math 112. The following list of other topics to be discussed is tentative, and will be adjusted according to the needs and interests of the students in the class.

- Aug 24 – Day 1      Brief course overview, Debrief of first day
- Aug 31 – Day 2      Grading homework
- Sept 14 – Day 3      Using graphing calculators in the classroom – guest speaker
- Sept 21 – Day 4      Techniques to check for understanding
- Sept 28 – Day 5      Using D2L effectively – guest speaker
- Oct 5 – Day 6        Mid-semester feedback; Preparing students for a multiple choice test – guest speaker
- Oct 12 – Day 7      Building classroom rapport and culture; Classroom management
- Oct 19 – Day 9      More on check for understanding
- Oct 26 – Day 10     Sticky student situations
- Nov 2 – Day 11      Opportunities for outreach – guest speakers
- Nov 9 – Day 12      Hot topics & trends in teaching – student presentations
- Nov 16 – Day 13     Online classrooms – guest speaker
- Nov 23 – Day 14     Trajectories for building your teaching CV; Documenting your teaching; Preparing students for the second midterm and final exam
- Nov 30 – Day 15     Job Market Panel – guest speaker panel
- Dec 7 – Day 16      Wrap up and reflection