

Assistant Professorship in Mathematics

Centenary College of Louisiana invites applications for a tenure-track position starting August 2009. Applicants should have strong teaching skills, an interest in working in a liberal arts environment, and a focus in applied mathematics. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in mathematics or a related field. The position has a teaching load of 21 teaching hours (six or seven courses) over two semesters.

Centenary College is a selective liberal arts institution with a student/faculty ratio of 12 to 1 and is a member of the Associated Colleges of the South. It has a $120 million endowment and is located in a metropolitan area with a population of more than 350,000. Individual attention is a core value of the college; accordingly, faculty are asked to work closely with students in both teaching and research. The department has a long history of using innovative teaching techniques and intensively incorporates technology in the classroom.

To apply, send a letter of application, c.v., an AMS cover sheet, a teaching statement, a research statement, unofficial copies of graduate and undergraduate transcripts, copies of recent student evaluations, and three letters of recommendation addressing research and teaching to:

Dr. Mark Schlatter
Chair, Search Committee
Centenary College of Louisiana
P. O. Box 41188, Shreveport, LA 71134-1188.

Review of applications will begin on October 15th and will continue until the position is filled. Centenary College recognizes that diversity is essential to its goal of providing an educational environment where students explore the unfamiliar, invent new approaches to understanding, and connect their work and lives to the world at large. We thus welcome applicants who would add to the College's diversity of ideas, beliefs, experiences, and cultural backgrounds. EOE