

MATH 111 COURSE POLICY – FALL 2010

Required Texts: Trigonometry by Lial, Hornsby, Schneider, 9th Edition
Course Web Site: <http://math.arizona.edu/~trig/>

Attendance: Daily attendance is expected from every student. Students who miss the first two class meetings may be administratively dropped unless they have made other arrangements. In addition, students with more than 3 unexcused absences may be administratively dropped from the course. (See Administrative Drop Policy at <http://catalog.arizona.edu/2010-11/policies/classatten.htm>) If you need to miss class for unavoidable circumstances, see your instructor as soon as possible.

Academic Integrity: Students are responsible to inform themselves of University policies regarding the Code of Academic Integrity. Students found to be in violation of the Code are subject to penalties ranging from a loss of credit for work involved to a grade of E in the course, and risk possible suspension or probation. The Code of Academic Integrity will be enforced in all areas of the course, including, but not limited to, tests and quizzes. For more information about the Code of Academic Integrity policies and procedures, including information about your rights and responsibilities as a student, see <http://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/codeofacademicintegrity>.

Classroom Conduct: Students at The University of Arizona are expected to conform to the standards of conduct established in the Student Code of Conduct. Prohibited conduct includes:

1. All forms of student academic dishonesty, including cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, and plagiarism.
 2. Interfering with University or University-sponsored activities, including but not limited to classroom related activities, studying, teaching, research, intellectual or creative endeavor, administration, service or the provision of communication, computing or emergency services.
 3. Endangering, threatening, or causing physical harm to any member of the University community or to oneself or causing reasonable apprehension of such harm.
 4. Engaging in harassment or unlawful discriminatory activities on the basis of age, ethnicity, gender, handicapping condition, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status, or violating University rules governing harassment or discrimination.
- Students found to be in violation of the Code are subject to disciplinary action. For more information about the Student Code of Conduct, including a complete list of prohibited conduct, see <http://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/policiesandcodes/studentcodeofconduct>.

Calculators: A graphing calculator (TI-83, 84, or 86) will be needed for much of the course. You will be required to do some course work without a calculator. Calculators that perform symbolic manipulations (such as the TI-89 or TI-92) cannot be used.

Homework: A homework policy will be distributed to you in class or posted at an online location to be announced by your instructor.

Tests: There will be two midterm exams worth 100 points each. The dates of the midterm exams will be announced in class by your instructor. Any questions regarding the grading of an exam need to be cleared up within one week after the exam has been returned. Please note that exams will not be curved and there is no extra credit. All tests are closed book, closed notes.

Missed Exams: Students are expected to be present for all exams. If a verifiable emergency arises which prevents you from taking an in-class exam at the regularly scheduled time, you must notify your instructor as soon as possible, and in any case, prior to the next regularly scheduled class. Make-up exams will be administered only at the discretion of the instructor. If a student is allowed to make up a missed exam, (s)he must take it at a mutually arranged time. No further opportunities will be extended. Failure to contact your instructor as stated above or inability to produce sufficient evidence of a real emergency will result in a grade of zero on the exam.

Final Exam: There is a comprehensive common final exam; the final exam will require being able to integrate material from different parts of the course. The Final Exam is on Monday, December 13, 2010, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. Your instructor will announce the room for the Final Exam.

Students with Disabilities: If you anticipate issues related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with your instructor to discuss ways to ensure your full participation in the course. If you determine that formal, disability-related accommodations are necessary, it is very important that you be registered with Disability Resources (621-3268; drc.arizona.edu) and notify your instructor of your eligibility for reasonable accommodations by Friday, September 3, 2010. You and your instructor can then plan how best to coordinate your accommodations.
