

Homework Policy
Math120 - 001: Calculus Preparation
Spring 2012

- Non-examination assessment will consist of electronic homework, written homework and unannounced quizzes. They are weighed approximately 40%, 40% and 20% respectively of the final non-examination assessment grade.
- There will be no make ups for in class quizzes. If you are absent for a quiz, a zero score will be given for that quiz.
- Electronic and written homework, as well as their due dates, will be announced in class on a weekly basis.
- Written homework should be handed in at the start of class. Late homework will not be accepted. Several of the lowest homework grades will be dropped at the end of the semester.
- Make up homework will be given upon discretion of the instructor. In case of an excused absence (medical reasons, dean's excuse, etc.), please notify the instructor in advance for full-credit make up work.
- Partial credit will be given upon discretion of the instructor.
- Show your working! Credit may not be given for correct answers without relevant work.
- No credit will be given for illegible work.
- Homework should have name, date, course and section number, and assignment title.
- Handwriting must be neat and legible.
- Homework must be on letter-sized paper (white or lined).
- If multiple pages are handed in, they must be stapled.
- No fringes/fuzzy edges.
